THE CHIEF

PUBLISHED BY THE CLASS OF 1960
GREENVILLE HIGH SCHOOL
GREENVILLE, OHIO
VOL. L

1911

Fifty years ago the first annual was published in Greenville High School by members of the 1911 graduating class. Instead of being called the traditional "Chief" this first edition was simply called the "Annual." From then on, the "Chief" was published yearly. Various annual staffs added original ideas to the book, and the annuals grew more and more elaborate in design and detail. A copy of each of these books is on display in an annual case in the Central Avenue foyer in G.H.S.

In the year 1935 the "Chief" celebrated its silver anniversary. Twenty-five years have thus passed, and the 86th graduating class would like to commemorate the golden anniversary by proudly presenting fifty years of progress in its addition to these volumes—the golden "Chief."

50 YEARS OF ANNUAL PRODUCTION

Pictured above are the forty-nine annuals previously published in Greenville High School. This year's Chief makes the total of all those published approximately 17,000. In 1911 perhaps only about one hundred books were delivered here. Now 700 books are published for the students, faculty, and citizens of Greenville.

We made it! From our first day of high school in the fall of 1956 to our last day of school, June 3, 1960, the class of 1960 has striven to leave these hallowed halls with the best possible education. Some of the Seniors will enter college in the fall, others plan to enter some profession immediately after graduation, some will take their marriage vows and still others will enter the Armed Services. No matter where we go or what we do, all of the Seniors will remember the good and the bad times everyone had in our four years at Greenville High.

Queen Pam dances

Pat Paulus was crowned Polio Queen of 1960 at the Greenville-Fairborn basketball game by last year's queen, Carol Bromagem.

Each year the boys' clubs of G.H.S. sponsor the girls in the Polio contest. Each club places a container in the second floor hall. Money is put in the containers and the girl with the most money is Polio Queen. All proceeds go to the annual Polio Fund Drive.

Kathy Teaford, sponsored by W.C.C., and Tish Brinley, sponsored by F.F.A., were on the court. Pat was sponsored by the "G" Association.

This fall turned out to be a fair season for the Green Wave Cross Country Team. They started fairly well but faltered late in the season against stronger MVL teams. The final season record was three wins and three losses.

Sparked by John Timmons and Wayne Johnson, the Wave harriers copped many first and runner-up spots in their matches, but a lack of depth was the determining factor in the final totals. In the MVL meet, the Wave harriers finished sixth with Johnson and Timmons receiving fifth and sixth medals respectively.

The Piqua Holiday tournament trophy again returned to Greenville for the third straight year. Also, the Wave cagers won two games in the district tournament before losing to Urbana.

Led by Seniors Dick Leathers and Steve Deardourff, the racket squad pounded up 8 wins and 3 losses. The singles and doubles combination of these two boys was the basis of the team points until Deardourff had a recurring knee injury. The last two matches were played without him. In the M.V.L. meet Leathers finished second in singles competition and he finished fourth in the District just missing a berth in the State Tournament.

TAYLOR PUBLISHING COMPANY
"The World's Best Yearbooks Are Taylor-made"

Dear Readers,

In behalf of the 1960 Annual Staff, I would like to thank each one of you for helping us celebrate the golden anniversary of the Chief.

It's been a long, hard year for all of us. Many times we have felt like abandoning the whole project, but thanks to the constant urging of our advisor, Mrs. McPherson, we finally completed our yearbook.

We all feel that if it weren't for the assistance of many people, it would be impossible to present this yearbook to you.

Therefore, I would like to thank our representatives from Taylor Publishing Company, Dick Kennard and Matt McCormick, who so patiently answered our questions and corrected our mistakes.

I would like to thank Emery Schmelzl and Osborne Studios for helping us with our photography.

I would also like to thank Miss Day and Bill Shine, from Look, and all Seniors, teachers, and subscribers for making our magazine drive a success.

And last of all, I would like to thank you, the reader, for purchasing our 1960 Chief.

Sincerely yours,

Bonnie Zechar

Editor-in-Chief
